The newly renovated social hall of the Young Israel of Avenue J is the most exciting room in Flatbush. With its beautiful design and outstanding facilities, it is the perfect setting for your family affair or simcha. Yet, for all its luxury, it can fit within the most modest budget. Ideally located in the heart of Midwood, the hall offers flexible seating arrangements to accommodate your preferences. With two entrances from the street, at opposite ends of the hall, each with its own coatroom and washing stations, and an available portable Mechitza, the hall is ideal for those planning a separate seating event.
